

Francis Pompey
CFO and Senior Vice President of Administration & Finance

Mr. Pompey joined COSI in February of 2015. In his role as CFO and Senior Vice President of Administration and Finance, he oversees all finance functions, as well as a number of operational and administration functions. These areas include Finance, Information Systems, Human Resources, Facilities, Safety, and Administration. With more than 25 years of financial, business management, and sales success in Education Administration, Financial Services, and Public Accounting roles, Mr. Pompey brings a diverse background that will contribute to COSI's strategic work, performance management and analysis, as well as, financial accountability and process improvement.

Prior to joining COSI, Mr. Pompey served in several key roles with Huntington National Bank, The Ohio Department of Education, Bank One and Deloitte & Touche, including Chief Administrative Officer, SVP of Wealth, Government and Home Lending; Senior Vice President of Strategy and Performance Measurement; SVP and Chief Financial Officer of Regional Banking; Vice President of Financial Planning and Analysis and Audit Manager.

While at the Ohio Department of Education (ODE) Mr. Pompey had responsibility for various finance and operations areas including School Options and Finance, Communications, Facilities, and Information Technology. Additionally, he was integral to the development, design, operation, and improvement of systems creating and delivering agency services and strategic planning. His connections and background with ODE are very timely for COSI as we focus our efforts to be a formal partner in STEM Education, Career Awareness & Skill Exploration and Early Childhood Education.

Mr. Pompey received his Certified Public Accountant certificate while at Deloitte & Touche and graduated with a BA in Accounting/MIS from The Ohio State University.
