¡CUBA!

EXHIBITION OPEN MARCH 21 - SEPTEMBER 7, 2020

Cuba is a place of exceptional biodiversity and cultural richness. With this bilingual exhibition at COSI, guests are offered fresh insights into this island nation that’s just 94 miles from Florida’s shores. With a close look at Cuba’s unique natural history, including its native species, highly diverse ecosystems, and geology, ¡Cuba! also explores the history, traditions, and contemporary Cuban voices to inspire novel perspectives on this dynamic country.

¡Cuba! is organized by the American Museum of Natural History, New York (amnh.org) in collaboration with the Cuban National Museum of Natural History.

INCLUDED WITH COSI MEMBERSHIP!

Through a unique partnership with the American Museum of Natural History, COSI now offers a permanent Dinosaur Gallery that lets you connect these amazing animals to the modern world and see them in a new and exciting way.

GREAT BEAR RAINFOREST

INCLUDED WITH COSI MEMBERSHIP!

The National Geographic Giant Screen Theater is your portal to explore science, culture, history, and nature in an immersive setting that includes surround sound and 4K projection. Visit cosi.org for more National Geographic Giant Screen Theater offerings.
